Chapter:

Bulletin: Title I, 06-25, Delivery of the 2006 Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement

Date: December 11, 2006

To: Holders of the Payroll/Personnel Manual
Personnel User Groups
Personnel Officers
Agency Personnel Offices
Fiscal Officers

In January 2007, the 2006 Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, will be mailed to the employee's residence mailing address as recorded in the Payroll/Personnel System (PPS). The data on the W-2 includes salary payments for Pay Period 25, 2005 (or the pay period of implementation into the PPS), through Pay Period 24, 2006, inclusive. Employees who worked during this tax year for more than one organization serviced by the National Finance Center (NFC) will receive a W-2 containing the total wages paid by NFC for all organizations. The W-2 will be issued under the name of the current employing organization.

Note: Agencies are encouraged to remind their employees to verify that their residence addresses are correct and make any changes prior to the mailing of the W-2's. The addresses can be updated through the Self-Service Option of Employee Personal Page (EPP).

Attachment 1 to this bulletin contains a list of the boxes on the W-2 with the definition of each box. Attachment 2 provides a sample of the 2006 W-2 and the insert that will be included with the employee's W-2. The insert contains descriptions of certain boxes as required by IRS.

Employee Indebtedness

To comply with IRS regulations, employees who have not repaid an indebtedness (e.g., salary overpayment) incurred during Calendar Year 2006 will have the outstanding debt included as taxable wages on their W-2's. The outstanding debt is subject to Federal income tax. Any payments which were made toward a debt between December 13, 2006, and December 31, 2006, could result in a corrected W-2 being issued at a later date.

Electronically Delivered Version of the W-2

The IRS will allow employees the option to file their tax return with a printout of an electronically delivered version of their W-2 for Tax Year 2006. Employees who are established users of NFC's EPP can print this electronic version of the W-2 for Tax Year 2006 (via NFC's Web site at www.nfc.usda.gov) for submission with their tax return. The 2006 W-2's will be available on the EPP in January 2007.

Note: Employees who have not yet requested a password for accessing their EPP can find instructions on NFC's home page by clicking the My EPP icon on the Application Launchpad. Once an employee requests access to their EPP, W-2 history data is available on their EPP (Tax Years 1998 forward).

Turbo Tax

In addition to printing their W-2 from the EPP, employees will also be able to import their 2006 W-2 information into TurboTax. NFC has worked with the software provider to make their product interoperable with the EPP. Changes to the software are expected to be in place by the end of January 2007.

Reporting Center

W-2 data will be available on the Reporting Center through the Financial Reports Menu in January 2007.

Maintaining W-2 Data

Although W-2 history data for Tax Years 1998 forward is available to the employee on their EPP and for agencies via the Reporting Center, only 2 years of W-2 data is available in the W-2 Online Processing System. The W-2 data for Tax Year 2004 will be moved to history in November 2006 and will no longer be available to be viewed by agencies. In mid-January 2007, agencies will be able to view W-2 data for Tax Years 2005 and 2006.

Inquiries

If some employees do not receive W-2's when they are initially mailed, it may have been determined that these W-2's required adjustments (e.g., relocation travel payments). The appropriate adjustments will be completed by January 31, 2007, and the W-2's will be sent to the employees at that time. Initial inquiries should be made through the employee's EPP. After February 5, 2007, authorized agency personnel may submit inquiries on Form AD-354, Request for Information, (preferably by direct entry into the Document Tracking System) to make inquiries for employees who have not received W-2's.

NOTICE TO EMPLOYEE

Refund. Even if you do not have to file a tax return, you should file to get a refund if box 2 shows federal income tax withheld or if you can take the earned income credit.

Earned income credit (EIC). You must file a tax return if any amount is shown in box 9.

You may be able to take the EIC for 2006 if: (a) you do not have a qualifying child and you earned less than $12,120 ($14,120 if married filing jointly), (b) you have one qualifying child and you earned less than $32,001 ($34,001 if married filing jointly), or (c) you have more than one qualifying child and you earned less than $36,348 ($38,348 if married filing jointly). You and any qualifying children must have valid social security numbers (SSNs). You cannot take the EIC if your investment income is more than $2,800. Any EIC that is more than your tax liability is refunded to you, but only if you file a tax return. If you have at least one qualifying child, you may get as much as $1,648 of the EIC in advance by completing Form W-5, Earned Income Credit Advance Payment Certificate, and giving it to your employer.

Corrections. If your name, SSN, or address is incorrect, correct Copies B, C, and 2 and ask your employer to correct your employment record. Be sure to ask the employer to file Form W-2c, Corrected Wage and Tax Statement, with the Social Security Administration (SSA) to correct any name, SSN, or money amount error reported to the SSA on Form W-2. If your name and SSN are correct but are not the same as shown on your social security card, you should ask for a new card at any SSA office or call 1-800-772-1213.

Credit for excess taxes. If you had more than one employer in 2006 and more than $5,840.40 in social security and/or Tier I railroad retirement (RRTA) taxes were withheld, you may be able to claim a credit for the excess against your federal income tax. If you had more than one railroad employer and more than $3,075.60 in Tier II RRTA tax was withheld, you also may be able to claim a credit. See your Form 1040 or 1040A instructions and Publication 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Instructions

- Box 1. Enter this amount on the wages line of your tax return.
- Box 2. Enter this amount on the federal income tax withheld line of your tax return.
- Box 8. This amount is not included in boxes 1, 3, or 5. For information on how to report tips on your tax return, see your Form 1040 instructions.
- Box 9. Enter this amount on the advance earned income credit payments line of your Form 1040 or Form 1040A.

Box 10. This amount is the total dependent care benefits that your employer paid to you or incurred on your behalf (including amounts from a section 125 (cafeteria) plan). Any amount over $5,000 also is included in box 1. You must complete Schedule 2 (Form 1040A) or Form 2441, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, to compute any taxable and nontaxable amounts.

Box 12. The following list explains the codes shown in box 12. You may need this information to complete your tax return. Elective deferrals (codes D, E, F, and S) and designated Roth contributions (codes AA and BB) under all plans are generally limited to a total of $15,000 ($10,000 if you only have SIMPLE plans; $18,000 for section 403(b) plans if you qualify for the 15-year rule explained in Pub. 571). Deferrals under code G are limited to $15,000. Deferrals under code H are limited to $7,000.

However, if you were at least age 50 in 2006, your employer may have allowed an additional deferral of up to $5,000 ($2,500 for section 401(k)(11) and 408(p) SIMPLE plans). This additional deferral amount is not subject to the overall limit on elective deferrals. For code G, the limit on elective deferrals may be higher for the last three years before you reach retirement age. Contact your plan administrator for more information. Amounts in excess of the overall elective deferral limit must be included in income. See the "Wages, Salaries, Tips, etc." line instructions for Form 1040.

Note. If a year follows code D, E, F, G, H, or S, you made a make-up pension contribution for a prior year(s) when you were in military service. To figure whether you made excess deferrals, consider these amounts for the year shown, not the current year. If no year is shown, the contributions are for the current year.

- Box 12 C. Taxable cost of group-term life insurance over $50,000 (included in boxes 1, 3 (up to social security wage base), and 5).
- Box 12 D. Elective deferrals to a section 401(k) cash or deferred arrangement. Also includes deferrals under a SIMPLE retirement account that is part of a section 401(k) arrangement.
- Box 12 E. Elective deferrals under a section 403(b) salary reduction agreement.

- Box 12 P. Excludable moving expense reimbursements paid directly to employee (not included in boxes 1, 3, or 5).
- Box 12 W. Employer contributions to your Health Savings Account. Report on Form 8889, Health Savings Accounts (HSAs).
- Box 12 AA. Designated Roth contributions to a section 401(k) plan.
- Box 12 BB. Designated Roth contributions under a section 403(b) salary reduction agreement.

- Box 13. If the "Retirement plan" box is checked, special limits may apply to the amount of traditional IRA contributions that you may deduct.

Note: Keep Copy C of Form W-2 for at least 3 years after the due date for filing your income tax return. However, to help protect your social security benefits, keep Copy C until you begin receiving social security benefits, just in case there is a question about your work record and/or earnings in a particular year. Review the information shown on your annual (for workers over 25) Social Security Statement.
